HOW TO PROVIDE PUBLIC COMMENTS

The Draft Environment Impact Report/Environmental Assessment (EIR/EA) and the Draft Final Remedial Action Plan (RAP) will be available during a 45-day review period from January 18, 2017 to March 3, 2017 (which has been extended to March 17, 2017).

1. You can provide public comments at the public hearing on February 22, 2017 from 6:00 – 8:00 PM at:

Mark Twain Junior High School
707 S. Emerald Avenue
Modesto, CA 95351

The public hearing will be held in an open forum format. You will have an opportunity to review the design concepts, information, and displays, as well as provide written comments on the Draft EIR/EA and Draft Final RAP. Caltrans, Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) and Regional Water Quality Control Board (RWQCB) staff will be available to answer your questions. Comment cards will be available for you to fill out. A court reporter will also be available to record individual comments.

2. You can provide written comments
Submit your written comments no later than March 17, 2017 to:
Caltrans
Attn: Phil Vallejo
Central Sierra Environmental Analysis Branch
855 M Street, Suite 200
Fresno, CA 93721

3. You can provide written comments via email
Submit your written comments via email to:
phillip.vallejo@dot.ca.gov.

Your written comments on the documents will be part of the public record. After considering and replying to all written comments on the Draft EIR/EA, Caltrans will make a decision on the project.

Similarly, after considering and replying to all written comments, DTSC and RWQCB will make a decision on the RAP. Comments on the Draft Final RAP should also be sent to the above Caltrans address and these comments will be forwarded to DTSC and RWQCB to review and respond to them.
